HAIL DAMAGE — A Rusk County Highway Department patrolman used a truck-mounted brush Tuesday afternoon to clear large quantities of leaves, tree limbs and other debris off Wis. 40, after a small but potent storm crossed through southwestern Rusk County. The thick vegetation covered the highway for several miles north of County D. Sheriff's deputies reported golf-ball-sized hail. Numerous trees were felled by high winds, knocking out power to numerous customers. It was not immediately k a tornado or s ers were quick complaints. N
