

Thomas Anthony Costello passed away Wednesday August 7th, 2013 at Mayo Clinic Health Systems in Eau Claire, WI.

Tom was born in Elgin, IL on May 20th, 1946 to Thomas and Barbara (Clark) Costello. Following high school graduation, he attended Knox College in Illinois. Tom went on to complete his Bachelor's degree in Communications from Marylhurst College in Portland, Oregon. He is a veteran and served in the United States Marine Corps. He was the general manager at KMHD in Portland, Oregon prior to his retirement.

Tom is survived by his wife Grace (Brogan) Costello; his sister Anne (Dale) Tahija; children Patrick Sobota, John (Anne) Sobota and their twin daughters Ava and Madelyn, and Kathy (Andre) Stout and their sons Brandon and Cordell. He is further survived by a very special aunt, cousins and other extended family. Tom is preceded in death by his father Thomas Costello; mother Barbara (Clark) Costello; and his brothers Daniel and Patrick Costello.

Tom's sense of patriotism brought him to touch many lives of those in need around him. He was proud of his parents and brother's military service. Tom shared a close bond with his sister Ann and took special delight in being a father and grandfather.

Many may have experienced his honesty, quick wit, or even his prowess at Trivial Pursuit. His family and friends cherish all the memories.

A memorial visitation for Tom will be held on Thursday August 15th, 2013 at Stokes, Prock, and Mundt, 535 S. Hillcrest Parkway in Altoona. Friends and family are welcome to call between 4 p.m. and 5:45 p.m. A small prayer service will be held at 5:45 pm, followed by a military tribute to conclude the visitation.
